"THE WAY OF THE THREE-YEAR-OLD WHY"

Early readers who bought "The Way of the Three-Year-Old Why" from my website have been able to read it for a couple of weeks now. There was a slightly higher geek factor, so a lot of folks waited for the ebook to become available on the major retailers, and others are waiting for the print versions (about one or two more weeks for those, by the way).

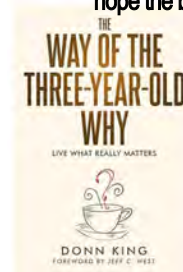

As of October 29, 2023, you can now just go one-click it and be reading the story of Dan Roberts and how he found his reason for living within half a minute.

Some folks just like Amazon, of course, and so it's easy to find there (I'll link in the comments to facilitate that).

But more and more people choose places like Kobo, Apple Books, and Google Play. You can find "The Way of the Three-Year-Old Why" at those places and lots more from the book's home page, making it a two- or three-click endeavor. (Here's that home page: <http://donnking.com/3yo>.)

Along with a good story containing life-changing and life-affirming guidelines, the book includes a discussion guide, a link to a bonus chapter, and the first chapter of the next book in The Sparklight Chronicles series.

If you have already gotten The Way of the Three-Year-Old Why and liked it, tell your friends. And it would help others find it if you wouldn't mind posting a review. In any case, I hope the book lifts your day and lifts your life.

DISTRICT 63 2024 SPRING CONFERENCE

Jason Cook and the Spring Conference team have received several strong proposals for venues and dates for the 2024 Spring Conference. We are working with the proposals to get the best possible rate for all of those that will be in attendance in person and online. We just want to do our due diligence to get the best rate for the Conference. We are targeting Winter TLI on November 18 to be able to make the announcement as long as we can get everything finalized. We will keep you all up to date.
